

Girl in the Front Row

The Planet Smashers

When I met up with her she seemed so shy
Couldn't tell if I could be her kind of guy
Took a shot n' told her that she looked fine
Said 'You wanna dance and have a good time?'
I thought that se might be kidding
When she grabbed me
And dragged me into the pitWoah-oh, the girl in the front row
Woah-oh, the girl in the front rowThe two of us went on
And stomped all night - oi
During the show she fought with security
After the band played we dance to the DJ
I asked how was her night and this is what she said
'I just don't need the aggravation
Of getting kicked in the head'
Woah-oh, the girl in the front row
Woah-oh, the girl in the front row
Woah-oh, the girl in the front row
Woah-oh Go Go J.O!Don't kick the girl!
Don't kick the girl!
The girl in the front row
