

Carrie

Shiny Toy Guns

We were young once,
Full of violence,
Now you're silent,
And I'm breathing in cold,
You forgot me,
Almost lost me,
Every night was hell like battle and war,
Hesitation,
Frustration,
What's the problem?
Is this what you want?
You're hearing voices,
Getting restless,
A pair of wings is all you're wishing for,
Y'know
Y'know
Carrie,
Where did you go?
Carrie,
Where did you go?
Carrie,
What's wrong Carrie?
Do you remember,
when you saw me,
wandering the dark streets,
You left me alone,
It wasn't like you,
Nothing like you,
To paralyze our dreams of changing the world,
taken over,
by a cobra,
hooded warrior.
is deaf to the sounds,
shooting bright lights,
crimson walkways,
now we say New York's our city of love, of love, of love, Carrie,
Where did you go?
Carrie,

Where did you go?
Carrie,
what's wrong?
Tell me what's wrong,
I still,
still feel the love we found,
Where did you go?
Carrie,
Where did you go?
Carrie,
Where did you go?
Carrie,
What's wrong?
Tell me what's wrong,
Tell me what's wrong.
