Between The Stones And Jones

Written by: Cyril Rawon, Kim Tribble, Kim Williams I met her at the Jukebox, she was playing the Rolling
Stones

She said, Honky Tonk Women, now that's my favourite song

Well I dropped in a quarter, and I played the Race is on

We fell somewhere between the stones and Jones (Chorus)

Somewhere between big lips and no show

Country and Rock & Roll

We found a little common ground we can dance on

Somewhere between a two step and a stagger

The possum and Jagger

We fell somewhere between the Stones and Jones Can't get no satisfaction, was the next song that she played

Well I punched B 11, he stopped loving her today

Before the night was over our love was going strong

We fell somewhere between the stones and Jones (Chorus) (Break) (Chorus) We fell somewhere between the Stones and Jones
