Ramalama (Bang Bang)

RÃ³isÃ-n Murphy

Bang, bang !

Could a body close the mind out
Stitch a seam across the eye
If you can be good, you?ll live forever
If you?re bad, you?ll die when you die

Hearing only one true note
On the one and only sound
Unzip my body
Take my heart out
'Cause I need a beat to give this tune

Taking a picture of

Oh the body swayed to music
Oh the lightning glance
If I would give it all and all
Maybe you would hear me
Ask for half a chance

Hearing only one root note
Planted firmly in the ground
Undo my heart, unzip my body and
Lend to my ear a clear and a deafening sound

Unzip my heart

And if I need a rhythm
It?ll be to my heart I listen
If it don?t get me too far wrong

And if I
And if I
And if I need a rhythm
It?s gonna be to my heart I listen
If it don?t take me too far gone

Everybody smile please
Nobody pay no mind to me
Finger in position on the switch

Taking a picture of me
Taking a picture
