Stardust

Gemini Syndrome

I know this place
It smells like innocence lost
We left the traces of the sins we boughtBut I wouldn't change a thing
It's just waking dreamLook at the wake
From the stardust pouring from your eyes
It's no mistake
You are perfect
You are perfect in my mind
And you won't fade awayI know this face
It's so familiar
I'm sure I know you but it's all a blurNow I can't recall a thing
It's such a wicked dreamLook at the wake
From the stardust pouring from your eyes
It's no mistake
You are perfect
You are perfect in my mind
And you won't fade awayPraise to the memory
Living inside of me
Host to entirety writing my story
Lusting and gluttony
So unbecoming
The stardust is making me blindBut you won't be left behind, the memory's here to remindLook at the wake
From the stardust pouring from your eyes
It's no mistake
You are perfect
You are perfect in my mindLook at the wake
From the stardust pouring from your eyes
It's no mistake
You are perfect
You are perfectLook at the
Look at the wake pouring from your eyes
Look at the
Look at the wake
You are perfect in my mind
And you won't fade away
