

Our Infinite Struggle

In Flames

In a disaster story
A central conflict of primal rage
Usual sort of desperation
Characters remain the same
Never cut you out, I cut you in
Feeding on life's leftovers
I am writing to you
You should realize, it hurts in me too
Walk on broken glass
Is the pain safe at the end?
All the elements in life's complexity
Make our struggle infinite
Never cut you out, I cut you in
Feeding on life's leftovers

I am writing to you
You should realize, it hurts in me too
All the elements in life's complexity
Make our struggle infinite
Never cut you out, I cut you in
Feeding on life's leftovers
I am writing to you
You should realize, it hurts in me too
As I cut you in
Feeding on life's leftovers
I am writing to you
You should realize, it hurts as I cut you in
