

Hollywood

NLT

She maybe beautiful
Sexy from her head down to her toes
Everybody's favorite centerfold
The girl that everybody wants to know
But what I didn't see
Was a secret identity
What she was doin' behind the scenes
All the dirty lies and filthy schemesChorus:
You don't, you don't even know
How low, how low she would go
To be the star of her show
And I don't know
I don't know why I trusted
She, she took control of me
So blind I couldn't see
Be like monopoly
Deeds that she can't undo
All that she was untrue
That girl I thought I knew
Never expected babe
Hollywood set me upShe set me up, she set me up, she set me up
Oh and I don't know why but Hollywood set me upGirl was sittin' next to me
And she askin' could she leave with me
I'm like can't be comin on to me
My girl is at home waitin' on me
Whispers in my ear and she's like baby can we disappear tonight
Kisses me and to the right my girl is
Staring me right in my eyeChorus:
You don't, you don't even know
How low, how low she would go
To be the star of her show
And I don't know
I don't know why I trusted
She, she took control of me
So blind I couldn't see
Be like monopoly
Deeds that she can't undo
All that she was untrue
That girl I thought I knew

Never expected babe
Hollywood set me upShe set me up, she set me up, she set me up
Oh and I don't know why but Hollywood set me up
She set me up, she set me up, she set me up
Oh and I don't know why but Hollywood set me upSpot lights
Left right
Goin' to her head
Closin' the curtain
Your show is over
No more, no more
Take your act and leaveI don't know why I trusted
She, she took control of me
So blind I couldn't see
Be like monopoly
Deeds that she can't undo
All that she was untrue
That girl I thought I knew
Never expected babe
Hollywood set me upHollywood set me up
Hollywood set me up
Said I shouldn't have trusted her
And I don't know why but hollywood set me up
