Worth Fighting For

Judas Priest

You said I could never find a way to ease your mind
But where I go you wind up in the dust
I tried so hard to have you reach another side of me
Instead you went to nowhere and forgot
So I wander on
Asking where you might have gone
From what I knew before
Some things are worth fighting for Diserty can wear you down, but still I'm rollin' through
Did I see your figure in the haze?
I am driven by your thirst, to quench myself of love
The sun beats on me for the price I pay
So I wander on
Asking where you might have gone
From what I knew before
Some things are worth fighting for, yeah
Night road leads me to a town of dust
I'm beckoned by the gloss
Of jealousy and tumble weed
They're calling out, forevermore
Worth fighting for
I'm leading in the wind
Head bowed down from what I saw
My shadow far a friend
There's some things are worth fighting for
So I'm moving on
Asking where you might have gone
From what I knew before
Some things are worth fighting for, yeah
Worth fighting for
