Not Like You

Lifer

Why do you insist
That you are right and I am wrong?
I know, I'm no Jesus Christ
But I'm no different than you
What if I was everything you wanted?
Would you still point and laugh at me?
I cried once but never again
Not again
I am not like you
So you don't like me
I am not like you
You are so resistant
Never listening to anything other
Than what's familiar
Unfamiliar with everyone else
What if I was everything you wanted?

Would you still point and laugh at me?
I cried once but never again
Not again
I am not like you
So you don't like me
I am not like you
What if I was everything you wanted?
Would you still point and laugh at me?
I cried once but never again
I am not like you
So you don't like me
I am not like you
So you don't like me
I am not like you
