Super Tuesday

LeftoÌˆver Crack

it aint a mystery that US history was built upon the graves of native ways and beaten slaves yeah, we're all free and brave until we misbehave and there's just no escape from the crushing weight of the police statechorus:two towers falling down i'll be at zero ground we're flying friendly skies until the city dies and neither one will save the human history empiers will always fall this is the final call(spoken) the world bank and the IMF have created a system of modern day colonialism that make the people of the developing world poorer and the multi-national corperations richer and take the power away from all of us. It's time to take back control of our lives and tear down these monuments to greed and build our new world from the broken peices.i pledge allegience to no flag top the bottle with an oily rag we're building up an army fast to destroy the pigs and break the upper class im only one this is my voice but you're gonna have ta make a choice i dont care if you disagree 'cause this fucking thing it means the whole world to mewe won't be hypnotized by all the millionaires this time the truth is told when you're sick to death of being bought and sold our freedom's been misplaced fuck that it's been erased the worlds your shooting range im gonna spare some change to uphold the stock exchange(spoken) their skewed development polocies kill people every day and they keep us so hypnotized that even though it's right in front of our eyes we don't see it. World Trade is a death machine.chorus x2
