

Unravel

Hundredth

How was I to know?The search went on and on and on
I thought I could fill you up
While I had nowhere to go
But the deeper I dove the less I found
A waste but how was I to knowOn the surface
It seemed like everything was worth itI was an aimless string
I was dangling
You were pulling me
Just to watch me unravel
Push & pull
Provoke my will
Trying to see what you can get out of me
Soak up every last ounce of me
More than you can carryYou'll have to wring yourself out
Before you walk away
You'll have to wring yourself out
Before you think about leavingI'll stand there & watch
You pour me back out
It's a sad sight to see
Because without me
You return to being emptyOn the surface
It seemed like everything was worth it
I was an aimless string
I was dangling
You were pulling me
Just to watch me unravel
