Jayne

Kelly Jones

She took herself out in the car
She drove herself around the block
She said she's leaving me again
Then she got lostI look for her out on the porch
I want to see her face once more
She said she's leaving me again
Then she got lost
Then she got lostShe took the midnight train to nowhere
She said that she was leaving home
Yeah, she's leaving me tomorrow
But tomorrow never came for JayneI wait for her now and then
I hope to see her round the bend
She said she's leaving me again
Then she got lost
Then she got lostShe took the midnight train to nowhere
She said that she was leaving home
Yeah, she's leaving me tomorrow
But tomorrow never came for Jayne
For Jayne, for Jayne, for JayneNever came for Jayne
For Jayne, for Jayne, for Jayne
Never came for Jayne
