

All Day Long

Celtic Thunder

Every time you go away I know it won't be for long though it seems,
And all the time we spend apart that ticking tock clock seems to last for weeks.
Well I guess it is quite long to expect you to climb up here each week,
Yes I guess it ain't so long four hours on a bus for you's a treat.
And it wont be long x2
All day long I sit here, x 3
Thinkin' 'bout you.

Yes I know there's a million miles and aeroplanes, they keep us apart,
But when I sit alone at night on my bus darling well your in my heart.
And it won't be long x2
So complicated times have passed, but am sorry babe I feel the same for you.
Yes I know I broke it off but am sorry babe ya just didn't stay true.
And it wont be long x2
All day long I sit here, thinkin' 'bout you.
