Erased

Volumes

I've been erased from the old me.
Can you tell me again, can you hold me if I won't lay till the morning sun?
It pulls you out and takes you right under..

I thought you'd hate me. But I needed you
I thought you'd hate me, But you needed truth
I thought you'd hate me, hate me, hate me, for losing you.
I thought you knew.

That we're cut out of the same cloth.
Feel like the pages of a story that we can't stop.
And, now I can't replace you with another thread.
Take one more step, I'll jump with you..

I thought you'd hate me. But I needed you
I thought you'd hate me, But you needed truth
I thought you'd hate me, hate me, hate me, for losing you.
I thought you knew.

Looking back at your building, you came crashing down. You'll think I'll forget that.
Never gonna take it back (You know where I lie)
Looking back at your bullshit, I came crashing down. You'll think I'll forget that.
Never gonna take you back (You know where I am)
I thought you knew.

It's hard enough you standing next to me,
You assumed with every moment explained with you
I'll need to know that you believe in me, or just release me into deja vu.

I!
I never wanted you to understand.
Why!?
I want to make you believe in me.
Believe in me.

I thought you'd hate me. But I needed you
I thought you'd hate me, But you needed truth
I thought you'd hate me, hate me, hate me, for losing you.
I thought you knew.

I thought you'd hate me. But I needed you
I thought you'd hate me, But you needed truth
I thought you'd hate me, hate me, hate me, for losing you.
I thought you knew.
