

Feel It

Sono Vero

Well youve been trying to run around Im here to hold you down to take a look around. Its just so plain to see that this loving should be.

So tell me who you trying to fool, Girl what you want to do cause everything I feel, Oh Yes I know you feel it too. Cause this is who I am. I know just where you stand, so whats it got to take to be your man.

I know that you see the way that I look at you. Time flies in your eyes, Im always there to pull you through.

This love that we have, is something they cant take away. Its you and me, cause that the way its got to stay.
Moving forward still I know youre by my side. Take your time, dont deny, the reasons you may find. Girl I dont know what you may say, but this is right, now for you.

You feel it in soul and its so clear, that Im the one you need and Im a waiting there. You try to raise your head and dry your tears. Why you want to run when love is so near.

and dry your tears. Why you want to run when loves so near.

Girl you know were taking it slow, well make this love for sure. You and I our loves so divine its something that we cant ignore.

I know that you see the way that I look at you. Time flies in your eyes, Im always there to pull you through.

This love that we found, is something they cant take away. Its you and me, cause that the way its got to stay.
Moving forward still I know youre by my side. Take your time dont deny, the reasons you may find. Girl I dont know what you may say, but this is right, now for you.

You feel it in soul and its so clear, that Im the one you need and Im a waiting there. You try to raise your head and dry your tears. Why you want to run when love is so near.

and dry your tears. Why you want to run when love is so near.
