

Careless

Glenn Miller, His Orchestra

You're weak and you're gullible and I don't care
You're a walking disaster and I don't care
You cry yourself to sleep and I don't care
You're wasting our time and I don't care
You knew this day would come and you did
 And you really should have waited
 Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
 Because I'm so faded
You knew this day would come and it did
 And you really should have waited
 Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
 Because I'm so faded
You contradict everything and I don't care
 Your logic is twisted and I don't care
I'll pretend to be happy and I don't care
 You cry yourself to sleep and I don't care
You're weak and you're gullible and I don't care
 You're a walking disaster and I don't care
 You knew this day would come and it did
 And you should have waited
 Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
 Because I'm so faded
 You knew this day would come and it did
 And you really should have waited
 Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
 Because I'm so faded
 Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
 Because I'm so faded
