Like We Never Said Goodbye

Clay Walker

I didn't know you were gonna be
At that bar when I walked in till I walked in
I looked up, saw your face, turned around
And I walked back out again
'Til then I thought there's too much that we shared
So I made myself get a hold of myself
And walked back in and went right up to you
I could feel you were caught off guard
Neither one of us knew just what to do so I said
How you've been, been a while
Tell me how's your mama?
You said, good, you can sit down if you wanna
I said I was just thinking 'bout Oklahoma
The wild roller coaster ride we had that summer
'Fore we knew it
We were on our second glass of wine
Sitting there, talking just like
We had never said goodbye

Believing after all that time
Will it click just like before? Maybe a little more
'Fore we knew it they were closing up the joint, yes
Stacking them chairs, locking them doors
I asked the waitress would she mind if we slept there
And stayed for breakfast, we both laughed
You grabbed your purse and I paid our tab
Standing underneath the moon, I couldn't help but ask
What you say, we take a stroll down by the river
Oh, what a night, girl, can you believe this weather
I've been thinking we were pretty damn good together
You said, yeah, wonder why did we ever let it go
I said, I don't know but after seeing you tonight
Well, it feels just like we had never said goodbye
Never said goodbye
I've been thinking maybe we should give it one more try
Like we never said goodbye
