The Sixth Verse

Pave the Path

Living in the darkness
Dying is the message calling my name
I'm surrounded by fears
I put my faith in evil
Smiling to my craven heart
Blister my veins, my fiery sorrow

I'm bleeding in the darkness
I'm longing to be forgiven

Show me your blood
We all sacrifice as one
Show me the path
Where the garden ever lasts

I'm bleeding in the darkness
I'm longing for your "affection"

My faith as careless as how you view my past
A blood paved path
