Do I Look Worried

Tedeschi Trucks Band

Back in the day when I lied
We'd always fight
Now here you are fooling around
Out every nightI don't have to take it anymore
And I'm tired of always keeping score
All I'm saying
Do I look worried to you?
Oh, do I look worried?Smacked in the face
Such a disgrace
You were wrongI'll try it again
Stay to the end
But how long?We've been here so many times
And I know you've fed me so many lies
All I'm saying
Do I look worried to you?
Oh, do I look worried?
Oh, worried to you?
Oh, 'cause I ain't worriedFool me once or twice you know they'll say
Shame on you
But now that I'm done with the math
Here's what I'll doI'll find my way to an open door
'Cause its not the same as it was before
All I'm saying
Do I look worried to you?
Oh, do I look worried?
Oh, worried?
Oh, 'cause I ain't worried
Lord, 'cause I ain't worried
You better, you better be worried
Oh, worried, worried, worried, worried, worried, worriedI ain't gunna take it
Anymore
