

My Lips Are Sealed

Jim Reeves

I promise you he'll never know
That once we loved each other so
The past we knew I'll not reveal
My lips are sealedMy heart may cry with every beat
Without your love I'm not complete
It doesn't matter how I feel
My lips are sealedLet there be laughter
Not one single tear
And ever after
Let your fears disappearIf you love him as I love you
Forget the past I led you through
Just don't look back it's all concealed
My lips are sealedLet there be laughter
Not one single tear
And ever after
Let your fears disappearIf you love him as I love you
Forget the past I led you through
Just don't look back it's all concealed
My lips are sealed
