Insufficient

John Dreher

Music

[Verse]
My words aren't enough to say,
How I'm amazed, by You Couldn't raise my hands high enough to express my love, for You

No matter how loud I sing, no matter the gift I bring It all seems Insufficient, to describe, how Your love came in and changed my life It's Insufficient, to explain, how I'm captivated, by Your grace

No matter how loud I sing, No matter the gift I bring,
It all seems Insufficient

For You are good and Your mercy endures
You are faithful, You are true and Your ways are ever pure You are Lord of Lords, and My words are Insufficient,

To worship You
When the angels cry both day and night You are Holy they seem Insufficient- to give You praise when all the earth is filled with Your Glory

No matter how loud I sing, No matter the gift I bring, all seems Insufficient

Insufficient
My words are Insufficient
Oh Lord
even this very song is... Insufficient
