

I'm Gonna Fall

Ash

This is a beginning although this is an end
I got a sight of heaven and it's gone straight to my head
And the time is right for falling, this time I'm gonna fall
That's the price I must pay for a taste of your sweet love I'm gonna fall, this time I'll fall, gonna fall
Something in your glances puts a spell on me
As the world fades all around, you're all that I can see
And the time is right for falling, this time I'm gonna fall
That's the price I must pay for a taste of your sweet love I'm gonna fall, this time I'll fall, gonna fall
Feel it taking over, gonna reach there soon
The warmth of skies at sunset, I want to linger in this glow
And the time is right for falling, this time I'm gonna fall
That's the price we both pay, for a taste of your sweet love I'm gonna fall, this time I'll fall, gonna fall
