Into The Wild

Lewis Watson

Take my hand and let go

I just want you to know

You're the only one that pulls me in

You changed everythingLike one small shaft of light

Flooding into my eyes

I will never see things just the same

But I'm not afraidAnd all I have doesn't seem so significant

And at the drop of a hat,

I could leave almost everything that I've ever known

So here we goStep out into the wild

There's a beautiful storm in your eyes

We're perfectly intertwined

And if it's quite alright, you could be my way of lifeSea salt sits on your lips

Birds fall earthwards from cliffs

Thought I couldn't do this

But I'm fine 'cause you're by my sideAnd all I have, it doesn't seem so significant

And at the drop of a hat,

My whole world's getting different

So here we go, off the roadStep out into the wild

There's a beautiful storm in your eyes

We're perfectly intertwined

And if it's quite alright, maybe it's time to Step out into the wild

There's a beautiful storm in your eyes

We're perfectly intertwined

And if it's quite alright, you could be my way of lifeAnd we take another step into the truly unknown

Don't know why but it's somewhere that we have to go

And it's dangerously wonderful

So come on, come on, come on Step out into the wild

There's a beautiful storm in your eyes

We're perfectly intertwined

And if it's quite alright, you could be my way of life
