Diamond Rings

Young Empires

I rhyme, rhyme, that's why I shine, shine
And you can roll anyone of my shows
No lights in my bag, no eye sight
I gotta keep on ryhmin', man, so I keep on shinin', man
I ain't gonna be a one hit wonder
I am forever, call me diamond man
I've been talkin' 'bout my new diamond rings
Because my new diamond rings they're the shit
Oh, oh, oh, you've been talkin' 'bout my new diamond rings
Because my new diamond rings, they're what's in
And if you're lookin' at me, you gon' be lookin' at them
'Cause they're the swagger that you see in my walk
And if you're listenin' to me, you gon' be listenin' to them
'Cause they're the slick that you hear in my talk
Hit me one screen, West End
Shine like I'm a girl's best friend
Girls see me and scream 'cause I'm on the TV
But I still take walks in my ends
14 when I entered the game
All I wanted was a little bit of fame
And now I'm fuckin' with the grown-ups
Go mad like shit, I forgot my age
Oh Chipmunk, you're so cute
Imma call you the diamond dude
And my rings got so many carrats
And you usually call this rabbit food
And the sales is custom made
No water involved I pay
Good Lord, I remember the days
I pray for Roland Cartier
I've been talkin' 'bout my new diamond rings
Because my new diamond rings they're the shit
Oh, oh, oh, you've been talkin' 'bout my new diamond rings
Because my new diamond rings, they're what's in
And if you're lookin' at me, you gon' be lookin' at them
'Cause they're the swagger that you see in my walk
And if you're listenin' to me, you gon' be listenin' to them
'Cause they're the slick that you hear in my talk
Eh, uh, see I'm such a classy guy

Designer shades hide my eyes
I know Lord, with a face like mine
How the hell could I be camera shy?
I make it look easy, man
But that don't mean it's easy, man
Got my middle finger up to the world
With a ring on the thing 'cause I froze my hand
Yeah, in that position, right back, clear your position
I'm everythin, you're not, you work I'm the boss
I reverent run this man
And I could turn your house into mine
And I could turn your girl into mine
Imma stay in my grind you could be in my life
And never let a nigga take my shine
I've been talkin' 'bout my new diamond rings
Because my new diamond rings they're the shit
Oh, oh, oh, you've been talkin' 'bout my new diamond rings
Because my new diamond rings, they're what's in
And if you're lookin' at me, you gon' be lookin' at them
'Cause they're the swagger that you see in my walk
And if you're listenin' to me, you gon' be listenin' to them
'Cause they're the slick that you hear in my talk
