Islands of Light

Dave Ralph

Running in the darkness, rolling back in time
Following the voices howling in your mind
Under you the frozen lake crackles till you halt
When the frosty mirror breaks, will you hear the call
Come admit your secret plan to make it to the top
Hear the sirens as they sing till the day you drop
Fall through the ice, into my eyes
Islands of light guide you tonight
Drowning in your daydreams, hiding in your bed
They keep on complaining, it
