Charity by Cha-ching

For every dollar that comes from your heart
Help someone in need to make a new start
Our world,becomes a better place
Donating your money show care and concern
You give without wanting more in return
Because of you,the worlds a better place
Now i get so much joy,from helping out whenever i can
I get so much joy,from lending out a helping hand
I get so much joy,donating my time for free
It grows my heart,thats charity
Thats charity,Thats Charity
Now that i know the value of gold
And how giving can help out
The young and the old
Our world is a better place
But dont you get me wrong
Not raising these funds,all by myself
Theres a whole team, to help spread the wealth
You too can make,the world a better place
Now i get so much joy,giving to those who go without
I get so much joy,generosity is what is about
I get so much joy,giving time books and clothes for free
Your donation,could feed a family
ThatsCharity (thats charity yeah)
I get so much joy (i get so much joy)
Thats Charity (thats charity yeah,ohh)
Shes charity,Im charity
