

Any Dream Will Do

Jason Donovan

I closed my eyes, drew back the curtain
To see for certain what I thought I knew
Far far away someone was weeping
But the world was sleeping, any dream will do I wore my coat with golden lining
Bright colors shining, wonderful and new
And in the east the dawn was breaking
The world was waking, any dream will do A crash of drums, a flash of light
My golden cloak flew out of sight
The colors faded into darkness
I was left alone May I return to the beginning
The light is dimming and the dream is too
The world and I, we are still waiting
Still hesitating, any dream will do A crash of drums, a flash of light
My golden cloak flew out of sight
The colors faded into darkness
I was left alone May I return to the beginning
The light is dimming and the dream is too
The world and I, we are still waiting
Still hesitating, any dream will do
