Red

Daniel Merriweather

And I'm alright standing in the streetlights here
Is this meant for me? My time on the outside is over
No, we don't know how you're spending all of your days
Knowing that love isn't here
You see the pictures but you don't know their names
'Cause love isn't hereAnd I can't do this by myself
All of these problems, they're all in your head
And I can't be somebody else
You took something perfect and painted it redNo sympathy when shouting out is all you know
Behind your lies I can see the secrets you don't show
No, we don't know how you're spending all of your days
Knowing that love isn't here
You see the pictures but you don't know their names
'Cause love isn't hereAnd I can't do this by myself
All of these problems, they're all in your head
And I can't be somebody else
You took something perfect and painted it red
When you took something perfect and painted it redYou take the best things from me
Then everything gets empty
That's not a world that I need, oh
You take the best things from me
Then everything gets empty
That's not a world that I need, oh, ooh, oohAnd I can't do this by myself
All of these problems, they're all in your head
And I can't be somebody else
You took something perfect and painted it red
When you took something perfect and painted it red
When you took something perfect and painted it red
You took something perfect and painted it red
