Everythings Alright

The Archies

when we not working on Sunday, hey hey a Sunday, watching the childrens play.
a buy some candies so sweet she candies, don't love it's such a day, everything all right all right
all right everything all right with me... everything all right all right, everything all right, that's the way should be love is getting some much butter, love is a sweet of now, my arrms around you my love seround you I love you more if I found how.
everything all right all right
all right everything all right with me... everything all right all right, everything all right, that's the way should be, I love to watch to serious come up on the morning, and I wonder if it's been or nine, it's just like I learn it need to grwoin and grwoin until the all world be around
everything all right all right
all right everything all right with me...
everything all right all right, everything all right, that's the way should be
