

Away

Voodoo Monkey Child

I close my eyes and I see
The darkness in front of me
I reach into the night, to see what I can see
And I fly... Away

I fly Away...

The dream lingers on, in timeless harmony
I spread my wings and move on
And jump from the highest tree
And I fly... Away

I fly Away...

(muffled)

The fog clears...
Strange actions, seem so normal
People I know, playing different roles
In this temporary hideaway.

Rooms turn into oceans, the joker becomes the king
I find myself to be, old old withered man
Then a happy, little one... carefree..

Playful in the night, deep within my dreams
All the secret symbols reveal themselves to me
And I dream, ooh, I dream

(full)

Resting upon the Crescent Moon
Rocks me gently, I cradle to the groove
The breath of twilight whispers to the moon
Awakens my senses all too soon
I open my eyes and I see, a new day in front of me
And I fly... Away

I fly Away...
