

In Your Face

Brad Sucks

I was barely legal looking for something evil
To say and people to be antagonized
And you said to me "it's not a good strategy
You should grow up try to act like you're civilized"

I explained that I just valued sincerity
"You should go fuck yourself and then try to die"
You were sick of it and called me an idiot
And left town and said "are you satisfied?"

If I had what you hate I could get you to break
No I'm not in your face I'm just getting by
If I had what you hate I could get you to break
No I'm not in your face I'm just getting by, oh

Caught a beating but would not be defeated
By any man who couldn't see I was always right
All I said was "I don't mean to offend
But you're the dumbest motherfucker I've seen tonight"

And though you know you wanna know everything I know
It's the way I roll you most admire
And even if I never think of calling you out
Am I ready for such a fight?

If I had what you hate I could get you to break
No I'm not in your face I'm just getting by
If I had what you hate I could get you to break
No I'm not in your face I'm just getting by, oh

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
