

So Inconsiderate

Dixon Ward

you can relax and not even think take what i say
and really believe
but what's the point, i always lie youve never known me as an honest guy you know what i think you know what i mean
so why should i even try to explain it just seems like a waste of time when you can already read my mind cause I'm just having fun at the expense of everyone but who can buy you
playing dumb everyday
reasons you care
things that you say
i take them inside
then throw them away
but i never thought of it as fair that you should get so mad cause I dont care
