GRAIN

è“œå³¶é‚¦æ˜Ž

I couldn't breath still can't believe we had to end I had it all and now I'm falling down again guess I act a little crazy but it's cause I'm so crazy about you guess I should have known better so better is what I'm gonna do I'm gonna prove I'm gonna show I'm gonna climb back in your eyes your gonna see your gonna smile your gonna love how good I've become cause I need you baby so let me prove I must admit how hard it hit the morning of waking up and realizing what I've done baby I can make you happy just give me chance you now I can cuz I can't see me without you and I'll never let you cry again

I'm prove I'm meant for you I'm gonna write it up in the sky your gonna see your gonna smile your just gonna love how good I've become cause I need you baby so let me through I know it's my fault but I know that you care so give me a chance to be all that I can it's not to late no I'm still your love I'm sorry I love you I refuse to move on I'm gonna prove I'm meant for you I'm gonna write it up in the sky your gonna see your gonna smile your just gonna love how good I've become cause I need you baby I need you baby so let me through.
