

Remember

Tony Momrelle

When the sun has gone
And the shadows of the night
Are closing in on you again
If you've lost all hope
And you feel that you cannot cope
With the mountain that stands in your way Remember
Remember That I am here
I've seen the wounds
I've seen the journey within the tears
That falls down your face
If you happen to fall
Happen to fall
Lift your head and rise again
Though you stumble
You have not lost the race Be strong
And remember
That I am here Ohhh The storms will come
And the sky may fall
And in the midst of all the madness
Yes through it all
Remember
That I am on your side
Remember
That the storm will subside
And ohh woah ooh
Remember love is here
