Whisper In Your Soul (feat. Grace Potter)

Gov't Mule

Lie with your body next to mine
Feels like I'm traveling through time
I feel the whisper in your soul
I feel you losing all control
Never thought I'd be here in your sky
Waited so long for the chance to try
I feel you slipping into spaceThe whole world's beauty on your face
And I feel, like this must be my lucky day
And this feeling, don't let it slip away
Cause it feels, like I'm spinning in time
And I feel, I feel fineGone is the pain of yesterday
My reputation slips away
I have this history you know
I take it everywhere I goAnd I feel, feel like it must be my lucky day
And this feeling, don't let it slip away
Yes it feels, feels like it must be my lucky day
And this feeling, don't let it slip away
Don't let it slip away
Cause I feel, I'm spinning in time
And I feel, I feel fine
Yeah it feels, like I'm spinning in time
And I feel, I'm feeling fine
I'm feeling fine
I feel fin
