

Solace

Within the Ruins

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

The luster is now gone
I know where I belong
A vagabond by nature
A life only I can endure I find solace, I find peace
I find peace in the unforeseen
And now my satisfaction is achieved Welcome filth, accept uncertainty
Comfort in knowing, I am not alone
Passion is shared, hardships endured
Learn from this, and fucking grow Grow Live, eat, breathe, bleed
Striving to reach the peak
Sweat, grind, break, bleed
Satisfaction achieved I find solace, I find peace
I find peace in the unforeseen
And now my satisfaction is achieved This is a statement
To always try
This is a statement
To never die
Now I boldly say I can never die! Live, eat, breathe, bleed
Striving to reach the peak
Sweat, grind, break, bleed
Satisfaction achieved Fuck the impending
The condescending
This is what I live by
A testament to always try
Defy, defy, defy, defy I can never die! (In background)
Never die!
Always strive!
Never deny!
I was built to survive!
