Awake & Dreaming

Courtney Jones

Engine out the window until morning
Couple thousand miles more is nothing
I'm steady as the cities pass beneath
And we'll see what tomorrow's sunset brings

Chorus:
Don't mind me, I'm awake and dreaming
Of a day unknown
Don't mind me, I'm awake and dreaming
Of the day when I can call you home

On this journey to see who I am
I'm catching sleep wherever I can
And I'm not looking for the next best thing
But we'll see what tomorrow's sunset brings

Chorus

On my way, so I'd like to say
But it's all based on your point of view
And I can fly and stay up all night
But it doesn't get me closer to you,
No...

Every chair and mind is occupied
Overhead the diamonds and the lights
I sink into my seat here on the wings
And we'll see what tomorrow's sunset brings

Chorus
