

Asking for It

Shinedown

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Can I have a moment of your time?
Just a single second so you see that indeed we'll be leaving you behind, before I cross that line Turn it up so you can hear the bells crashing through the clouds as it rain down the drain That we know all too well, it's a living hell Careful what you say and who you say and who you say it to Careful what you say and who you say you it to Baby you talked too much and you were asking for it, asking for it, asking for it
You can blame bad luck but you were asking for it,
asking for it, asking for it
When all is said and done, you need to tie your tongue
Cause when you spit on everyone
You were arguing and now you're asking for it, asking for it, asking Caught up in the gutter once again Crashing through the mud, throwing lies, cutting ties until the sidewalk ends
And the truth begins Power through the point of no return Famously arranged all the same I hope you change if that world is gonna turn It's not my concern
Careful what you say and who you say and who you say it to Careful what you say and who you say you it to Baby you talked too much and you were asking for it,
asking for it, asking for it
You can blame bad luck but you were asking for it,
asking for it, asking for it
When all is said and done, you need to tie your tongue
Cause when you spit on everyone
You were arguing and now you're asking for it, asking for it, asking
You are, you are, you are, you are, you are, you are asking for it
You are, you are, you are, you are, you are asking for it Careful what you say and who you say and who you say it to

Careful what you say and who you say you it to Baby you talked too much and you were asking for it,
asking for it, asking for it
You can blame bad luck but you were asking for it,
asking for it, asking for it
When all is said and done, you need to tie your tongue
Cause when you spit on everyone
You were arguing and now you're asking for it, asking for it, asking You know you're asking for it, asking for it.
You know you're asking for it, asking!
