Too Many Times

Embrace

How many times people
How many times people
Too many times
Now that your god forsakes it
How are you gonna make it into the light
I know you wanna shake me
But as you try to break me
You bring me to life
If you'd a spine you'd face it
All of the might you've wasted
Too many times
Now the damage is done
I will darken your door
No the truth it don't glitter and shine
With you on my back
I will have the last laugh
Make you wish that you'd never told lies
Wherever you are wherever you stay
I will be there lying waiting all day all day

How many straws break it
How many wrongs make it
Make it a right
Only the wise like you
Could let the blind lead you
Too many times
Now the damage is done
I will darken your door
No the truth it don't glitter and shine
With you on my back
I will have the last laugh
Make you wish that you'd never told lies
Wherever you are
Whatever you say
I will be there lying waiting all day all day
