

Take Off

Chipmunk

Never thought I'd see the day when you wasn't by my side
Listen I was down for you girl, put you first in my world
And I thought you were down too right
It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off, take off
It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off
But now I'm leaving
I keep my life in a limelight, pap lights, award shows, red floors
Booji bars, yes, it's what I'm meant for
And we ain't quite the same as we used to be
My life's in the public eye, I know you don't want yours to be Truthfully, 2 years in it's still new to me
I wouldn't say you're comfortable, I would say you're used to me
Hence separating doesn't seem real
They tell me, "Chip, keep the girl that you had before the deal, yeah"
You can call this my reff flow
Could this decision might determine how the game goes
Every time you get use me being here, I go
On that note that's my queue to go
Never thought I'd see the day when you wasn't by my side
Listen I was down for you girl, put you first in my world
And I thought you were down too right
It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off, take off
It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off
But now I'm leaving
If it ain't a push forward it's a slow down
It's kind of ironic that I slow down
It's best that I go now rather than later
Before you claim I'm too busy chasing that paper, it's true talk
And to say it's over there, ain't no good words
I don't think anybody breaks up on good terms
So I'ma hit the club
Get my mingle on
Get my single on and throw it in a single song, yeah
And you could call this my reff flow
Could this decision might determine how to game goes
Every time you get used to me being here, I go
On that note that's my queue to go

Never thought I'd see the day when you wasn't by my side
Listen I was down for you girl, put you first in my world
And I thought you were down too right
It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off, take off
It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off
But now I'm leaving
They always ask me if I'm single in interviews
I was too scared to say I'm into you, moving like a single dude
Didn't ever lie but I skipped the truth
Its past breaks now, fuck it, interlude
On my own feeling like I've got a point to prove Hungry but I don't wanna have my cake and eat it too
And it's not that I ain't feelin' you
I'm leaving us, I ain't leaving you
And you call this my reff flow
Could this decision might determine how the game goes
Every time you get used to me being here, I go
On that note that's my queue to go
