

Fake Friends

HAZE (Hamilton Troy Hayes)

it's funny how you say the things you say when i'm not around

and how come you never understood
where i'm coming from

and you say it's a simple implication but i say it's about reciprocation and i don't think you deserve yourself cause all you do its talk about yourself and your fake friends

they don't really like you they'll say whatever you want to get up behind you

got your fake friends
so don't mind coming around the next time you're in town and you think that i'm gonna think about you when you're gone but you're so wrong yeah it's laughable how valuable you think you are but you're so far

it's no riddle you're a two-face but, i guess i didn't see that cause my back you said you had it but bro
all you dis was stab it and it's hard to comprehend what happened to friends until the ends what happened everything you said you put these lies up in my head skert how could you go and just play me like this now i'm reminisce back to when we were kids when you'd always laugh at the shit that i did but that was the old you cuz i never knew that you would get older and act like a duche i'm just speaking the truth whatcha want me to say? you wearing a mask made of paper mache these storm clouds that follow will wash it away. cause i don't i don't think that you deserve yourself deserve yourself yeah yeah yeah fake friends fake friends fake friends fuck 'em
