

Lady Darkness

The 69 Eyes

Lady Darkness Deep in her eyes
No place to disguise
And I can't stare straight
I know she's wise
Falling back on the start
I don't mean no harm
Just a passer by
No need to charm Excuse me
Dear lady darkness
I ain't coming home
Tonight with you
He hours of night
Turn into the light
And I can't stand straight
I know it's bright
Writing back on my heart
I don't need no-one
Just a kiss & bye
Before the sun Excuse me
Dear lady darkness
I ain't coming home
Tonight with you Just get a drink
And gimme a year or two
And I'll be o.k.
Falling back on the start
I don't mean no harm
Just a passer-by
No need to charm Excuse me
Dear lady darkness
I ain't coming home
Tonight with you
