

Chocolate

One Eskimo

I'm just sitting in the clouds today
I hope to god it doesn't rain
'Cause everyone got problems and I know I've got mine
But at least I've got the stars with me Then I fall down
I just fall now Can I have your attention please
Were like chocolate in the sun
And in this heat
We are melting into everyone She doesn't have the heart to say
That she hasn't got the heart to stay
She's got her problems so I stay out the way
I'll be sitting in my clouds today Can I have your attention please
Were like chocolate in the sun
And in this heat
We are melting into everyone Can I have you attention please
Were like chocolate in the sun
And in this heat
We are melting into Can I have you attention please
Were like chocolate in the sun
And in this heat
We are melting into everyone
