Hot Coffee

Carl Anderson

CHALK it up to a twist of fate, that Im sitting here with you, In a SoHo dive that stays alive way past two
The sign outside turns colors your looking good in every one More and more it seems my only dream is to stay with you tonight,
With Hot Coffee, cool conversation, I'm waiting for an invitation Now what's the deal how do you feel? Is our connection only real in my fantasies , waitress please Pour a little more Hot coffee Hot coffee
So you mentioned the love you lost, has you out at sea somehow you wonder when , you'll love again , make it now now Your eyes are dark with mystery, Im dying for the smallest clue
As the night goes on , and the world goes home and there's only me and you Drinking Hot Coffee,and cool conversation, I'm waiting for an invitation Now what's the deal how do you feel? Is our connection only real
in my fantasies , waitress please come h ere, Pour a little more Hot coffee some Hot coffee (Bridge)
now listen sooner or later, the moments bound to come sweetheart, who knew that I might be the one to gamble some pride oh no (Piano solo) 16bars
Hot Coffee, cool conversation, I'm waiting for an invitation Now what's the deal how do you feel? Is our connection only real in my fantasies , waitress please come here
Pour a little more Hot coffee Hot coffee
(Adlib)
