Catch Me If You Can

Eric Clapton

Catch me if you can, I won't be easy to find
I got a woman at home that's driving me out of my mind
Catch me if you can, it won't be easy to do
And I'm warning you brother I won't be leaving no cluesCatch me if you can, I won't be leaving no scent
I've been running the wrong way, I think it's time that I went Believe me, I'm a man, I ain't easy to tend
And I'm moving on out, so catch me if you canThere's no use bothering with the lost and found
You'd better find a shovel, 'cause I've gone to ground
Little girl never did pay me no mind
I guess I'll have to go and leave her behind, soCatch me if you can, I won't be easy to find
I got a woman at home that's driving me out of my mind
Catch me if you can, it won't be easy to do
And I'm warning you brother I won't be leaving no cluesThere's no use bothering with the lost and found
You'd better find a shovel, 'cause I've gone to ground
Little girl never did pay me no mind
I guess I'll have to go and leave her behind, soCatch me if you can, I won't be easy to find
I got a woman at home that's driving me out of my mind
Catch me if you can, it won't be easy to do
And I'm telling you brother I won't be leaving no clues
