

Busterismology

The Coup

I'm risin' like the vapors from the dank
Fuck the mirror in my pocket, had to break it for a shank
What you thank? Walk the plank
Is my motherfuckin' attitude Right hand on the wheel, elbow out the window, leanin'
To the latitude, actin' rude can get you blown up, to'n up
But these teeny-boppers ain't gon' live to be a grown up
My motherfucker done got hisself into a spot
I got this nine but it jam on every fifth shot If we gon' do this, we could this but I'm trippin' off
The factor that these bastards put me through this Nuttin' ass tricks, gangin' up on my homie
Now I gots to do some shit to leave yo' kids lonely The level of my life should be higher
Told E-Roc to jump in and get up out the line of fire
Made a three point turn as the three joints burned
Off they lips, actin' hard wit they face held firm Calmly stated my acquaintance was no punk
You got a gat, I got a gat, now is you requestin' funk?
They said no, E-Roc yelled, Trick
When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch When we start the revolution, all they probably do is
snitch
When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch
When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch When we start the revolution, all they probably do is
snitch
When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch
When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch I used to work at Mickey D's
And to my old buster-ass manager, Licky Deez
Had me workin' on hands and knees, scrubbin' grease
And in the summer with the oven on, it's hundred-ten degrees I would despise flippin' fries
I guess his bitch-ass thought he was the shit
With his little red and gold tie
I asked him why I couldn't get mo' hours
He said it must be 'cause I lacked the mental powers If I was smart then I would be in his position
I left his nose in a busted up condition
Only came back for my last check to pay me off
He told me then that he wasn't gonna lay me off Said I should quit and it would be to my enjoyment
I fell for it and couldn't get my unemployment
To all the managers on all the shifts
When we start this revolution, all y'all probably do is snitch When we start the revolution, all they probably do is
snitch
When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch
When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch When we start the revolution, all they probably do is

snitch

When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch

When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch Now hella my folks got respect for you, killa

With a raised black fist and a pocket full of scrilla

Cap peelers want your autograph, say you know the path

But I do the math, my game bursts like a bubble in the bath Punk asses like you is just here for confusion

Be abusin' rhetoric and it's slightly amusin'

You be cruisin' all the networks, Ebony and Jet works

'Long witcha efforts, now what's yo' net worth? If you ain't talkin 'bout endin' exploitation

Then you just another Sambo in syndication

Always sayin' words that's gon' bring about elation

Never doin shit' that's gon' bring us vindication And while we gettin' strangled by the slave-wage grippers

You wanna do the same and say we should put you in business?

So you'll be next to the rulin' class lyin' in a ditch

'Cause when we start this revolution, all you probably do is snitch

(Snitch, snitch, snitch, snitch) When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch

When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch

When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch When we start the revolution, all they probably do is
snitch

When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch

When we start the revolution, all they probably do is snitch Busterismology, we don't want it, no sir

Come and take a look, come and take a look a little closer

Busterismology, it dangerous like cancer

Busterismology, it only fi bustas

Busterismology, it only fi bustas Ye, ye, yeah, ye, ye, ye, yeah, this is the Pam the Funkstress
