You Don't Move Me

Ana Popovic

You made the wrong motion
Drank the wrong potion
You lost the feeling
Not so appealingWhy do you think you got no friends
You drove them all around the bendOh yeah
You don't move me anymoreNow you wanna throw the dice
You already crapped out twiceOh yeah, Oh yeah
You just don't move me anymoreOne face so seamy
The other don't see me
It's better that you kill the light
You're giving us all a frightOh yeah
You don't move me anymoreHow you gonna keep your wealth
Can't even defend yourselfAh yeah
Oh no
You just don't move me anymoreWhat makes you so greedy
Makes you so seedy
No matter how you flip that dime
On our side is time
Oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeahIt's no longer funny
It's bigger than moneyYou just don't move me anymore
