

Marjorie

April Wine

(myles goodwyn)

Published by goody two tunes, inc. - bmi
It seems like a silly thing I said
 Seems like a silly thing I've done
 But I was lost and all alone, completely alone
I couldn't take it anymore
 And like a dream you came to me
 And when no one else can see
 You help me understand
 Took me gently by the hand
 Marjorie, your memory, is living, loving, everyday
 But no one's strong when love goes wrong
 It's over, if no one wants to stay
And I really feel I have to get away, get away
 And yes it's sad to be alone
 Gettin' drunk and gettin' stoned
 First the whiskey, then the wine
 Till I was losin' my mind
 I couldn't take it anymore

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>