The Final Confessions II

Catman Cohen

These were my confessions
(A message to God)
The light begins to fade
(Its time to go)
Back into the shadows
(That hard black fog)
Where darkness has its way
(God rest your soul)Nothing left to tell you
(Its all been said)
No more songs to write
(This silent Fall)
Nothing left to offer
(The wells been bled)
From a shadows waning life
(Who lost it all)Take my words and hold them
(Dont be afraid)
Place them near your heart
(And heal your pain)
Shadow words will kiss you
(And heal your pain)
When your world turns dark
(Dont be afraid)And I kiss you
Kiss you
I kiss you in the dark..
