666

David Yazbek

Up on the roof of 666
his skull shined like a big white dome Voice in my head says Fight fight fight
Voice in my neck says
Let's go home
Up on the roof of 666

Stuck in the sky
like a silver cup Moon leaned down
and scratched my back Then he cut my throat and says just give up
Up on the roof of 666

Laughed like a gull and squeezed my neck Voice in my chest says Run away
Voice on my tongue says
Send my check Radio waves scream
inside my body

Every little cell's
a dancing fool Nobody gave me
the right to party Better go back to my safety school

Up on the roof of 666
Neon man all dressed in chrome Face in the mirror says
No no no
But I'll be here
until the cows come home

Up on the roof of 666

How do you get 'em
to stop this party?
Every little word's
a stinking lie Pelican head on an ad-man's body

Leave me alone
while I take my pill and go and die
Up on the roof of 666
With the big smile
and the talk show host's hair

Crowd in my brain says Jump jump jump
Crowd in the street says
Stay right there
Up on the roof of 666
